I just received this a few moments ago. I know that this leaves a short turn around, but would appreciate it if you could identify retailers with displays in Hackettstown, N.J., to alert them about the situation below. We need people that might attend the meeting on short notice. If key chains are involved in this area, please contact their headquarters with this info.

Thank you.

Hackettstown, NJ -- It has been confirmed that the council will take up the issue of banning self-service displays of tobacco products on 9/22. A vote is possible, but not expected. Elizabeth Gallagher requests calls to alert retailers to attend the meeting.
